

OBJECT ENTRY FORM

Enquiries & Identifications

Neither the Institute of Archaeology's governing body, nor its officers or employees, can accept any responsibility whatsoever for an opinion that may be expressed on items submitted for examination. Opinions may be given only to the owner of an item or to the representative of the owner.

Institute of Archaeology Collections staff are not authorised to give valuations, to assist in the disposal of private property, or to express opinions regarding the merits of business firms.

It is the depositor's responsibility to collect item(s) described overleaf and left for identification within 4 weeks of the date of the form. In the event of the item(s) not being collected within that period, the museum's governing body reserves the right to dispose of the item(s) as it thinks fit after a period of 3 months from the date of the form.

Special Conditions

The creator/artist of each object submitted as an exhibit for the Objects of the Misanthropocene Exhibition shall:

- retain full control over their created work.
- retain all rights to any IP contained in their work
- retain the right to withdraw their work from the Illegal Museum of Beyond website.

Each object will be available for return to its owner on completion of the Temporary Exhibition in February 2023

The website and its contents may be used in research and teaching, however we will seek permission from you if we intend to publish your object images/content beyond its presence as an exhibit in the exhibition and website.

RESEARCHER NAME/S Dean Sully

- Undergraduate
 MA, Mphil or Doctoral student
 Postdoctoral researcher
 Staff member
 Honorary staff

Expected completion date:

March 2023

Lab Number: 0009

Exit Form Number:

Research or Teaching Notes

Storage Location

IoA Conservation lab/to be transferred to UCL Octagon Gallery by 23 September 2023